The Tehama County Animal Care Center is holding the fourth Free Cat Friday adoption event of this year on Sept. 14.

In an effort to find forever homes for all adoptable cats, the Animal Care Center will waive the adoption fee for adult cats, making them free to adopt. Kittens will have their adoption fee dropped to $10.

Cats ready for adoption have their initial vaccinations, have been de-wormed, and have been tested for feline leukemia. Additionally, all spay and neuter and rabies vaccination fees for cats adopted will be paid for b

Many of the cats are already altered and will be available to go home with adopters on Friday at the event, though some will stay with the center to get spayed or neutered before going home.

“This is our fourth Free Cat Friday event of this year, and we have had a very successful year for cat adoptions,” said center manager Christine McClintock. “We really enjoy putting on these events, and never have a shortage of adoptable cats. Nothing is more rewarding than to see the animals get altered and placed in to new homes.”

The Tehama County Animal Care Center is at 1830 Walnut St. in Red Bluff. Care Center hours are 8 a.m. to noon and 1-5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 10 a.m. to noon and 1-5 p.m. Saturday. Adoption hours are 10 a.m. to noon and 1-4:30 p.m.
