RED BLUFF — Tehama County Animal Care Center will be hosting a four-day spay neuter clinic in Tehama County, courtesy of the Peninsula Humane Society & SPCA.

Peninsula Humane Society will offer free spay or neuter to pets of low income Tehama County residents Sept. 28 through Oct. 1. The clinic will be in Rancho Tehama on Sept. 28 and 29. On Sept. 30, the clinic will be held at the Tehama County Animal Care Center in Red Bluff, and on Oct. 1, the clinic will be in Los Molinos.

“We are very grateful to have Peninsula Humane Society come to Tehama County once again,” said center manager Christine McClintock. “These free spay neuter clinics offer some of our residents the chance to improve their pets lives, some of whom might not have been able to afford spay or neuter services otherwise.”

Peninsula Humane Society’s free spay neuter clinic is funded entirely by donations made to the San Francisco Bay Humane Friends group.

“We cannot say enough good things about Peninsula Humane Society, and the San Francisco Bay Humane Friends, who make this clinic possible,” McClintock said.

There are up to 22 surgery spots available per day, but there are size restrictions and income qualifications that apply.

Interested persons must call or come in to the Animal Care Center, starting Wednesday. Surgery spots will be available on a first come, first served basis, and space must be reserved in person at the center.

The Tehama County Animal Care Center is at 1830 Walnut St. in Red Bluff. Care Center hours are 8 a.m. to noon and 1-5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 10 a.m. to noon and 1-5 p.m. Saturday. Adoption hours are 10 a.m. to noon and 1-4:30 p.m.
