For the fifth year in a row, a PawPrints fundraiser for Providing Essentials for Tehama Shelter, or PETS, is planned at Nu-Way Market, 8049 SR 99E in Los Molinos.

Nu-Way is sponsoring and the start date is July 5. The campaign will run through the end of the month.

PawPrints will be sold for $1 and $5. Each PawPrint will be hung up in the store with pride on the walls of gratitude.

PETS volunteers will be at Nu-Way July 5 to meet and greet supporters and offer a free ticket to a raffle basket. You need not be present to win. PETS is committed to assist the Tehama County Animal Care Center in completing its mission of practicing and promoting responsible compassionate care to all animals, both in their care and in the community.

The purchase of a PawPrint will help with the adoption of homeless dogs, cats, horses, goats, pigs, turtles and more; donations of pet food; free and assisted adoption assistance for seniors and emergency responders; spay and neuter vouchers; medical care including surgeries, medicines, long term treatments; social media education and information including lost and found pets; support of surrounding animal rescues; youth education and transportation.

For more information, call PETS at 527-8702 or visit www.Petstehama.org.

The wall of gratitude will display all the PawPrints purchased during July.
