

DAILY NEWS

PETS, Nu-Way team up to support animal shelter

Pictured are PETS volunteers and Nu-Way Market employees at a past fundraiser. (Contributed)

By RED BLUFF DAILY NEWS |

PUBLISHED: July 6, 2022 at 5:07 p.m. | UPDATED: July 27, 2022 at 12:01 p.m.

Nu-Way Market in Los Molinos and Providing Essentials for Tehama Shelter, or PETS, are celebrating their seventh year of the Paw Prints fundraiser in support of the Tehama County Animal Care Center.

From July 8-31 purchase a Paw Print at any Nu-Way check stand, it's that easy to help shelter animals. This year again, each $5 Paw Print is an automatic entry to win a hand crafted quilt made especially for PETS with a dog theme. Thanks to Sandra Merhoff.

Support of Paw Print sales helps to improve life for the homeless, neglected or abused animals of Tehama County. The objective of PETS is that whatever the shelter staff may need, they get. Anything to get and keep the animals healthy and adopted into a loving home.

Organizers reward the top-selling supermarket checkers with great big baskets of goodies. Those baskets will be on display in Nu-Way, 8049 State Route 99E, all month.

Pictured are PETS volunteers and Nu-Way Market employees at a past fundraiser. (Contributed)

